OCEAN COUNTY RECYCLING DIRECTORY

The 2008 edition of the Ocean County Recycling Directory is being provided by the Ocean County Board of Chosen Freeholders to educate the residents and taxpayers of Ocean County about the full range of recycling opportunities that are available in our region. The New Jersey Mandatory Recycling and Source Separation Act requires homeowners, businesses and institutions to recycle. This Recycling Directory provides information on facilities, programs and persons you can contact to learn about recycling opportunities. Recycling provides significant economic and environmental benefits, and with everyone's participation, we can reduce the amount of materials we pay to dispose of at solid waste facilities.

I encourage you to keep this guide and refer to it often. Think green.

Very Truly Yours,
Joseph H. Vicari

RECYCLE YOUR TIRES - FREE OF CHARGE

The County received a competitive N.J. Scrap Tire Management Grant in 2005. Because of this funding the County can accept tires free of charge from homeowners. The County is accepting tires without rims at both of the County's Recycling Centers : Monday - Saturday 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Proof of residency or a tax bill must be provided. The program accepts up to 20 tires per day. The Centers accept tires that are no larger than a truck tire and no smaller than a 13 inch tire. Bicycle, motorcycle or racing car tires are NOT accepted.

For further information, please contact Ocean County Northern Recycling Center - 732-367-0802 or Ocean County Southern Recycling Center - 609-978-0813.

In addition the County accepts tires free of charge from the municipalities, so please check the table on page 6 and 7 to find out if your municipality accepts tires at their recycling drop-off center.

RECYCLING REVENUE SHARING

Some of Ocean County's mayors gathered together with Freeholder James Lacey to collect their "big checks" from the County's Recycling Revenue Sharing Program for their towns' recycling efforts. Pictured (from left to right) are Freeholder James Lacey; Mayor David Most, Lacey Township; Mayor Thomas Stewart, Beach Haven Borough; Mayor Martin Konkus, Pt. Pleasant Borough; Mayor Thomas Kelaheer, Toms River Township; Mayor Carl Block, Stafford Township.

COMPOST CLASSES

The Board of Chosen Freeholders with the Department of Solid Waste Management sponsor free "how to" compost classes each spring and fall for Ocean County residents and taxpayers. Residents can learn how to manage their organic waste and understand the environmental benefits of home composting in these classes taught by Ocean County Master Composters. The classes are held at the Ocean County Recycling Education Center on New Hampshire Avenue in Lakewood Township. They run approximately an hour and a half and are limited to 35 people taught by two Master Composters. Registration is required for these classes. For further information, please contact Kathleen Avery, Assistant District Recycling Coordinator, at 732-506-5047.

RECYCLING COLLECTION

The New Jersey Mandatory Recycling and Source Separation Act and the Ocean Count Recycling Plan requires the municipalities to make provisions for the collection of residential recyclables including: bottles and cans, newsprint, cardboard and mixed paper.

The curbside collection of recyclables varies significantly with many municipalities providing weekly collection and others providing bi-weekly collection. All the municipalities are required to make provisions to collect the mandatory recyclable material from residential areas. Many coastal communities have a summer and winter collection schedule to accommodate the increases in quantities generated by summer vacationers. A number of municipalities provide a drop-off center where residents can bring recyclables. Please review the table on Pages 6 and 7 for details on drop-off centers. In addition, the municipalities are responsible for the collection of bulky items and appliances, and I would contact your municipal recycling coordinator to obtain information on procedures and fees.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

• What do I do with an old propane tank?

A number of municipalities will accept old propane tanks, so I would check with my hometown. (A list of municipal recycling coordinators can be found on page 3 of the directory.) The county accepts old propane tanks as part of the Ocean County Household Hazardous Waste Program. Please check page 9 of the Recycling Directory for a list of the Household Hazardous Waste Days scheduled for the Fall. Check the Yellow Pages under Gas-Propane and you will find a list of company's that will accept old propane tanks for a fee.

• How do I dispose of old needles?

Old needles can be placed in a rigid plastic bottle and screw the cap on tightly. The plastic bottle can then be disposed of in your regular trash. The plastic bottle should not be put with your bottles and cans for recycling.

RECYCLING MINI GRANT PROGRAM ASSISTS MUNICIPALITIES

The Ocean County Board of Chosen Freeholders established the Municipal Recycling Mini Grant Assistance Program in 2001 to support the municipalities in improving and expanding their recycling programs. This program offers financial assistance to interested municipalities who desire to improve their programs in areas of need determined by the County. The municipalities are required to provide at least 50 percent of the proposed funds. A subcommittee of the Ocean County Solid Waste Advisory Council ranks the applications and recommends approval to the Board. The program is funded from State Solid Waste Service Tax Entitlement Funds and the County's Recycling Revenue Sharing Program. Since 2001 the County has funded $1,015,773 in municipal projects.

In 2008, the County received $253,561 in requests and the Ocean County Solid Waste Advisory Council which reviews the proposals has recommended the Board of Freeholders fund sixteen proposals totaling $124,136.
