Announcing the Launch of the Cultural & Heritage Redesigned Website

The Ocean County Cultural and Heritage Commission is very excited to announce the launch of our newly redesigned website. Visit us at: http://www.co.ocean.nj.us/OC/ch/. After many months of hard work and dedication, we are delighted to invite you to explore our updated site. We wanted to make the website easier to navigate and more user-friendly. We would like to thank Commissioner Virginia E. Haines, chairwoman of Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Division of Ocean County Department of Parks & Recreation for her valued support and for always being a champion for the highlighting and preservation of Ocean County's history, art and culture.

Cultural and Heritage worked in conjunction with the Ocean County IT Department to meet our goal. This redesigned website will provide our visitors an easier way to learn about the art, history and culture throughout Ocean County. We felt it was important to present a unified, clear, and consistent message throughout the website. The new website is creative and interactive; it gives better access to the archives, current events and our partners in Ocean County. We will be updating our content with helpful information, new editions of our Out & About magazine, videos and event announcements. We hope you find the redesigned website with a fresh look and easy to access information as a source of information when you visit our site.

Amongst the features that are being offered is our easy to use drop down menus that can lead you to a variety of topics and the ever growing library of videos on our YouTube channel: http://www.co.ocean.nj.us/OC/ch/frmBarnegatBayDocs.aspx. The channel contains a variety of videos from Ocean County's past as well as award documentaries from the Salute to Ocean County. These videos truly highlight some of the best Ocean County has to offer both in capturing the past and honoring those Ocean County citizens who strive to make our county a better place to live. We have also improved the" featured events". Just press "view all" to see the varied selection of events.

Take a look around and make yourself at home on our new website!
