

The 'reNew Jersey Stronger' housing initiative is committed to rebuilding a lasting foundation for New Jersey in the aftermath of Superstorm Sandy. The initiative is made possible with funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) through its Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery program.

There are 3 ways to apply:

- Online: Visit www.renewjerseystronger.org
- By phone: 1-855-SANDYHM (1-855-726-3946)
- In-person: In any of the 9 Housing Recovery Centers

If you applied online or by phone and you are at a Housing Recovery Center to provide additional documentation you may work with one of our team members to scan the appropriate documentation for the program to which you applied..

Documentation needed for these programs:

Resettlement Program	RREM Program
Government Issued Photo I.D.	Government Issued Photo I.D.
Income verification form (i.e. 2012 tax returns, account statements, pay stubs, award letters, etc.)	Income verification form (i.e. 2012 tax returns, account statements, pay stubs, award letters, etc.)
Full Verified Loss (FVL) FEMA letter	Full Verified Loss (FVL) FEMA letter
	If Applicable:
	Flood Plain Manager letter
	Information of other funds you have received (FEMA, SBA, Insurance, NGOs, etc.)
	SBA loan information (Receipts of how those monies were used.)
	Insurance information (Receipts of how those monies were used.)

Funding for these programs is provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

