RESOLUTION

August 4, 2021

WHEREAS, Ocean County residents are beginning to resume regular travel as restrictions caused by the coronavirus pandemic are being lifted; and

WHEREAS, U.S. Passport agencies have been overwhelmed by the urgent need for updated travel documents; and

WHEREAS, as an example, earlier this month the U.S. State Department – which reportedly faces a backlog of 2,170,000 requests for travel documents – noted that it received 310,000 new applications in a single week for passports; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. State Department suggests that those applying for a passport plan for a six month delay for their request to be completed; and

WHEREAS, U.S. Representative Chris Smith of the 4th District introduced bipartisan-supported legislation with co-sponsor U.S. Representative Albio Sires of the 8th District called the “Passport Emergency Extension Act of 2021” (H.R. 4615); and

WHEREAS, the proposed legislation would require the U.S. Secretary of State to establish an expedited procedure to renew or extend the period of validity for all U.S. passports that expired during the COVID-19 crisis, or before March 31, 2022; and

WHEREAS, Ocean County Clerk Scott M. Colabella, whose office assists Ocean County residents in applying for U.S. passports, has been in contact with other New Jersey County Clerks in support of the proposed legislation to help lessen the length of time it takes to process the passport requests.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE OCEAN COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS gives its support to the legislation proposed by U.S. Representatives Chris Smith and Albio Sires in order to temporarily extend the expiration of all valid U.S. passports giving the State Department the necessary time to catch up on processing requests and much needed relief as it resumes its full capacity operations and adjusts to the growing number of Americans who need passports to travel for medical treatments, attend weddings and funerals, visit relatives overseas, conduct business and go on vacation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies shall be sent to Congressman Chris Smith, Congressman Albio Sires, Congressman Andrew Kim, Congressman Jeff Van Drew, Ocean County Municipalities, and Constitutional Officers Association of New Jersey.
