KINGDON GOULD PHYSICALLY FIT, PASSES DRAFT EXAMINATION BUT CLAIMS EXEMPTION.

Kingdon Gould, son of George J. Gould of Lakewood, N.J., appeared before the army draft board at Toms River, N.J., passed the physical examination and then claimed exemption on the grounds of a dependent wife.

Kingdon Gould was married recently to Miss Annunziato Lucci, an artist and former member of the Gould household.

The photograph shows Mr. Gould waiting his turn to appear before the examining board, along with 359 other men. On the bench in front, from left to right are: L. V. Chase; C. M. Arco; Kingdon Gould; and A. M. Camovito.
