

Ocean County Office of Senior Services Advisory Council

The Ocean County Senior Advisory Council serves as a key advocating body for older adults, established in accordance with the Older Americans Act. The Council's main functions include advising the Office of Senior Services on matters affecting seniors, engaging with local and state officials, offering testimony at public hearings, and identifying unmet needs in senior services. Council members actively participate in developing area plans, evaluating senior programs, and ensuring that resources are effectively targeted to meet the diverse needs of older adults.
