Man Injured in Crash After Being Ejected from Vehicle

Manchester Twp NJ – On Friday, June 24, 2016, at approximately 1:11 AM, members of the Manchester Township Police Department responded to the intersection of Route 571 and Seminole Street for the report of a multiple vehicle crash. Upon arrival, officers learned that it was a two vehicle crash involving a 2011 Nissan Altima and a 2001 Mazda Tribute. The Nissan was being operated by Joseph M. Diperi, 23, of Manalapan and the Mazda was being operated by Jevon I. Cotte, 24, of South Toms River. The investigation revealed that the Nissan was making a left turn from Seminole Street on to Route 571 when it collided with the Mazda, which was traveling eastbound on Route 571. The impact caused the Mazda to overturn. The operator, Cotte, who was not wearing his seatbelt at the time, was ejected through the sunroof. Cotte sustained injuries and was transported via ambulance to Jersey Shore University Medical Center by MONOC Paramedics for treatment. The operator of the Nissan, Diperi, was wearing his seatbelt and was uninjured in the crash, however he was evaluated by Manchester First Aid as a precautionary measure. Diperi refused further medical treatment. Cotte is listed in stable condition at this time. Assisting at the scene were Ridgeway Fire Department, Manchester First Aid, MONOC Paramedics, the

During summer months, customer demands for water increase dramatically due to lawn irrigation. Over the last few days, customer demands rose to record levels. Reducing water use during peak periods is essential to our provision of an uninterrupted supply of water, particularly in emergencies, such as fires. The following mandatory lawn and landscape watering restrictions are effective in our Eastern Service Area beginning June 28, 2016 until further notice. The Eastern Service Area generally includes the portion of the Township lying along Route 37 and those portions lying to the east of Route 37 and the Lakehurst Naval Air Engineering Station and Warfare Center. see WATER page 9

Two Vehicle Crash with Fatality Closes Route 70 in Whiting

Manchester Twp NJ – On Friday, June 24, 2016, at approximately 10:35 am, officers from the Manchester Township Police responded to the area of State Highway 70 and Pleasant Valley Road in the Whiting section of the township to investigate a head-on collision involving two vehicles. Upon arrival, officers discovered the two involved vehicles on the front lawn of a property on the westbound side of Route 70. Both vehicles, which were identified as a silver, 2013 Kia Soul and a red, 2000 GMC flatbed truck had significant front end damage as a result of the collision. Furthermore, it was also discovered that the driver of the Kia was unresponsive and was trapped inside of the vehicle.

The initial investigation into the crash revealed that the Kia, which was being operated by, 87 year old, Theodore Chandler of Whiting, was making a left turn from Pleasant Valley Road onto Route 70 West when his vehicle was stuck on the front driver's side by the GMC flatbed which was travelling east on Route 70. The GMC, which was hauling sod at the time of the crash, was being driven by, 56 year old, Robert Wimbush of Staten Island. Upon impact, both vehicles crossed into the west bound lane of Route 70 and ran off of the roadway. The driver of the GMC was reported to have been wearing his seatbelt at the time of the crash and was uninjured. The driver of the Kia was also wearing his seatbelt and his vehicle's airbag deployed during the crash. The driver of the Kia had to be extricated from the vehicle following the crash and was pronounced dead at the scene.

The roadway was closed and a detour was established for several hours following the crash. Assisting at the scene were members of the Whiting Volunteer Fire Company, the Department of Transportation Emergency Response Team as well as paramedics from MONOC. Also, assisting at the scene with the investigation were officers from the New Jersey State Police Commercial Vehicle Inspection Team, the Ocean County Prosecutors Office, the Ocean County Sheriff's Office Crime Scene Investigation (CSI) Unit, and the Ocean County Medical Examiner's Office.

The investigation is still ongoing, however, driver error on the part of the operator of the Kia appears to be the contributing factor. This crash is being investigated by Patrolman Antonio Ellis and Patrolman Paul Bachovchin of the Manchester Township Police Traffic Safety Unit.

FIVE MORE DATES FOR HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE COLLECTION

TOMS RIVER – Ocean County residents who need to get rid of household hazardous waste like pool chemicals and pesticides can access any of the next five collection dates announced by the Board of Freeholders.

“We will have five additional collection dates beginning with July 16 in Plumsted Township,” said Freeholder Gerry P. Little, liaison to the Ocean County Department of Solid Waste Management. “Our residents can attend any of the five collection sites. Making the program accessible and convenient makes it successful.”

Last year, the County collected 271,842 pounds of household hazardous waste at a cost of $107,921. The program is funded in part by State Recycling Enhancement Act Tax Fund.

“This free program, which got started in 1989, provides an avenue to get rid of items like paints, paint thinner, and cleaners, properly and safely, keeping the material from entering our waterways and our preserved lands,” Little said.

The program runs about once a month beginning in April until October and is held at different collection sites throughout the County. Three collections were already held earlier in the year.

“Collections are held in towns, both large and small, and citizens in any Ocean County town can attend any site,” Little said.

The dates, times and locations for the five upcoming collections are: 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., July 16 at the Plumsted Township Municipal Building, 121 New Egypt Allentown Road; 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Aug. 13, Brick Township Public Works Yard, 836 Ridge Road; 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.,

Aug. 27, Lacey Township Recycling Center, 820 Municipal Lane; 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Sept. 24, Beachwood Municipal Complex, 1600 Pinewald Road, and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Oct. 8, Ship Bottom Municipal Boat Ramp, Shore Avenue and 10th Street.

While the program is free registration is required.

To register for the collection sites in Plumsted and Brick townships call 732-367-0802; for the Lacey Township and Beachwood site call 732-506-5047 and for Ship Bottom call 609-978-0913.

“This continues to be a very popular program with Ocean County residents,” said Freeholder Director John P. Kelly. “I am happy we continue to offer this program on an annual basis. It provides benefits to not just our citizens but also the environment.”

Municipal recycling centers and the county’s recycling centers also allow for drop off of a host of materials including used paint, motor oil and car batteries.

“Our residents should check with us or their local recycling center to determine what is accepted year-round eliminating the need to store these products in their home for extended periods of time,” Little said.

Residents can drop off a maximum of 200 pounds of dry material and 20 gallons of liquid at the County’s household hazardous waste collection sites. No containers over five gallons will be accepted.

Materials accepted at the household hazardous waste collection sites are: paints, thinners, boat paints, solvents, pool chemicals, pesticides and herbicides, aerosol cans, auto products, toilet and drain cleaners, silver polishes, oven cleaners, photographic chemicals, rug and upholstery cleaners, polishes and bleaches, waste oil and used gasoline.

The five collection dates will be serviced by Radiac Environmental Services at a cost of .45 cents a pound.

Additional recycling information can be found on the county website at www.co.ocean.nj.us or by calling 1-800-55-RECYCLE.

ARIES: 21st March & 20th April

Like it or not, it more wise of you to be prepared to follow the structure somebody else wants to put in place – you can benefit from it. It will represent a new beginning of some description that can improve the routine side of things on a daily basis. By looking at this more closely you can recognise what needs to be limited.

TAURUS: 21st April & 20th May

Any new ideas you have are possessed with great potential, particularly when it comes to things important in your life. Others can be very focused on themselves right now, so it would pay you to take a more subtle approach if you are seeking an agreement or want some help from them. Don't give too much information at once.

GEMINI: 21st May & 20th June

Your finances will need some attention up to mid September. You may not be able to keep pressure from others at bay much longer. Responsibilities attached are something you would rather escape. Handling the details could be much easier than you expect. Going with this cycle can place you in a more stable situation long term

CANCER: 21st June & 22nd July

The New Moon this week occurs in your sign generating new opportunities and new directions on a personal level. At the same time you have a new thinking cycle operating for the next 2 months that can bring many opportunities. It is important you remain centered on your future wishes and resist any pressure from others.

LEO: 23rd July & 22nd August

There is a lot going on behind the scenes that could work out in a most beneficial manner. You need to put your energies into getting a good foundation in place with what you know you are dealing with right now. To do this successfully means you need to withdraw from a lot of other things. It will be worth it in the long run.

VIRGO: 23rd August & 22nd September

You will need to think about how you are affected in any situation involving you with a group of people – there could be more than one group. It might be stretching you too far on a personal level. You might have to realize that you can't be of service to everyone! Choose involvements you enjoy the most that you feel have a purpose.

LIBRA: 23rd September & 22nd October

The need to act on any new directions you want to generate when it comes to commitments or obligations will be uppermost. You need to stay mentally focused on this for the next 2 months. The opportunity to bring something to an end will be there if that is your desire. Don't be blasé when it comes to finances right now.

SCORPIO: 23rd October & 21st November

A far greater sense of co-operation from others when it comes to the future can be experienced. This can give you a whole new view of where you can head and certainly something to think about over the next 2 months. The more you have looked at important priorities in your life in the last year the better you will fare now

SAGITTARIUS: 22nd November & 21st December

You need to have a lot of patience right now – there is too much going on behind the scenes that is in the hands of others. Not that this will necessarily be to your detriment but time has to play out. Part of this can be decisions they will make that are connected to directions you can take. You may actually get what you want.

NEXT WEEK FOR CAPRICORN: 22nd December & 19th January

New directions connected to other people can be very significant. This could also mean new people coming into your life. There can be an easy alignment with your own priorities. What you need to focus on is what you would have to let go of. They will be far more focused on their position, not yours – be aware of that fact.

NEXT WEEK FOR AQUARIUS: 20th January & 18th February

Taking a new path when it comes to daily routines is inevitable. Finances can play into this though not in a way you might like. Even so, there is some benefit that perhaps you don't want to accept. You need to mentally focus on changes you need to make over the next 2 months. It is more about the small things than the big picture.

NEXT WEEK FOR PISCES: 19th February & 20th March

Most fortunate circumstances can open up new opportunities for you though it will not be completely free of the influence of somebody else. The more certain you have been about where you want to head, the better will be your position. It will not be without obligation though and this is where you could experience any difficulty.

LEAVE THE FIREWORKS TO THE EXPERTS

"As Independence Day approaches, we know that fireworks are synonymous with the celebration of our country," said Ocean County Freeholder Deputy Director Gerry P. Little. "It is important that you know that New Jersey is one of three states that ban all consumer fireworks. Residents risk fines and jail time if they are caught in possession of bottle rockets, firecrackers, Roman candles or any other pyrotechnics within New Jersey borders. Even handheld sparklers are banned. There are many places within Ocean County that offer firework displays over the weekend of July 4th so we encourage our residents and visitors to take advantage of these delightful tributes to our country.

Little added, "We also know that many people take it upon themselves to purchase and use fireworks at home. It is estimated that 230 people on average go the emergency room every day with fireworks-related injuries around the July 4th holiday. Remember, fireworks can be dangerous, causing serious burn and eye injuries. It is extremely important that adults supervise all fireworks activities; parents do not realize that young children suffer injuries from sparklers which can reach temperatures of 2,000 degrees."

Daniel Regenye, Ocean County Health Department (OCHD) Public Health Coordinator, said to remember that fireworks are illegal, BUT if you have purchased them elsewhere and plan on using them, it is extremely important to follow these safety tips when using fireworks:

- Never allow young children to play with or ignite fireworks.
- Remember, alcohol and fireworks do not mix.
- Never place any part of your body directly over a fireworks device when lighting the fuse. Back up to a safe distance immediately after lighting fireworks.
- Never try to re-light or pick up fireworks that have not ignited fully.
- Never point or throw fireworks at another person.
- Keep a bucket of water or a garden hose handy in case of fire or other mishap.
- Light fireworks one at a time, see LEAVE Page 5

Berkeley Mayor Encouraged by "Fairness Formula" School Funding and Property Tax Equity Plan

BERKELEY - Mayor Carmen F. Amato, Jr., Today, was encouraged by Governor Christie's "Fairness Formula" which would provide equal School funding for all, with each public school district receiving $6,599 per enrolled student. A figure that was arrived at by taking the $9.1 billion spent by the state today and dividing it among every K-12 student in New Jersey.

<http://nj.gov/governor/news/news/552016/approved/20160621b.html>

"We have been working closely with our 9th District Legislators, especially Senator Christopher Connors, advocating for an increase in School Funding. We need a Formula that is more favorably to Berkeley. The current school funding formula severely short-changes rural and suburban school districts like ours. I am encouraged by the Governor's announcement today, that recognizes the shortcomings of the current formula and the need to provide a more fairer funding formula that treats all districts the same." Mayor Amato said.

"Under the basics of this plan, both districts combined would see an increase of twenty million dollars in aid. Twenty million in additional property tax relief would be welcomed." Mayor Amato concluded.

Fireworks Show on July 3rd Will Be Biggest in BlueClaws History

Patriotic show following Sunday night game

LAKEWOOD, NJ - The post-game fireworks that follow the BlueClaws game on Sunday, July 3rd will not just be the biggest show of the year, but the biggest fireworks show in the history of FirstEnergy Park, the team announced today.

The BlueClaws are responding to numerous fan requests for an enhanced show surrounding Independence Day and will have the biggest of the nearly 200 shows in team history after the 7:05 pm game on Sunday, July 3rd.

The July 3rd show is presented by Georgian Court University.

"Our fans have loved our fireworks shows for the last 15 years but we did get several requests for an even bigger-than-normal show over 4th of July weekend," said BlueClaws General Manager Chris Tafrow. "We're glad to listen and can't wait for July 3rd!"

Last year, the BlueClaws were home on July 4th and welcomed a crowd of 8,317, the largest of the season. With the expected large crowd for one of the most anticipated games on the calendar, fans are encouraged to reserve their tickets in advance by calling 732-901-7000 option .

Of course, this show will be played to a series of patriotic music.

Individual Picnic Tickets: The BlueClaws also have individual picnic tickets available for this game. Tickets come with an all-you-can-eat buffet (including hot dogs, hamburgers, BBQ chicken, pulled pork, mac-and-cheese, and more) plus a seat in the picnic area. Typically, picnic tickets are only available for groups of at least 24. Tickets are $26.95 for adults and $18.95 for juniors. To order, call a BlueClaws representative at 732-901-7000 option 3.

Because the game is on a Sunday, Kids Eat Free thanks to ShopRite and Kids Run the Bases after the game. Dogs are welcome to FirstEnergy Park each Sunday and adults can enjoy $2 Coronas until the end of the seventh inning.

July 3rd is also a Kids Club MVP "Fireworks on the Field" Night, where members of the BlueClaws Kids Club, presented by Jenkinson's Boardwalk and Applebee's, can watch the fireworks on the field. Membership in the BlueClaws MVP Kids Club is just $25 and includes four ticket vouchers, a $25 gift card to Sky Zone Indoor Trampoline Park, a BlueClaws Lunch Bag, access to exclusive events, and much more. For information or to sign up, call Patrick Prendergast at 732-901-7000 ext 171.

The BlueClaws are the Jersey Shore's top stop for affordable, family entertainment. They have led the South Atlantic League and New Jersey in attendance in all 15 years of existence.

Sherry Rubel Photographer - Solo Show "Tent City"

Sherry grew up in her father's darkroom and is otherwise a self taught photographer. In 2011 after being laid off from PATCH.com she embarked on a project to help raise awareness about homelessness throughout the Country. She did a Google search and discovered "Tent

City", in Lakewood, NJ. She spent 4 years documenting inside "Tent City", the largest homeless encampment on the Northeast coast that was bulldozed in July of 2014 after a rigorous court battle. This exhibit will showcase a few images from her time spent there. She hopes to continue to raise awareness through her exhibition about the homeless and housing crisis facing our State, primarily, Ocean County, which still does not have a homeless shelter in place.

said last week was opening day of the season and the people were already ready and waiting.

Farmer Al's booth, run by Ken, also said he will have his fresh veggies and fruits on hand to treat on every Friday. U Pic Blueberry booth had the sweetest.

The Market, in its 13th year, was previously held at the Forked River Community Center, on Rt 9 and Lacey Rd., but it has such a following, the crowds were there last week.

FROM THE DESK OF MAYOR PALMERBERKELEY TOWNSHIP vs. SANDY

Manchester Township Water Utility Eastern Service Area Customers
Mandatory Lawn and Landscape Watering
Restrictions
Effective June 28, 2016

During summer months, customer demands for water increase dramatically due to lawn irrigation. Over the last few days, customer demands rose to record levels. Reducing water use during peak periods is essential to our provision of an uninterrupted supply of water, particularly in emergencies, such as fires. The following mandatory lawn and landscape watering restrictions are effective in our Eastern Service Area beginning June 28, 2016 until further notice. The Eastern Service Area generally includes the portion of the Township lying along Route 37 and those portions lying to the east of Route 37 and the Lakehurst Naval Air Engineering Station and Warfare Center.

1. Watering shall be defined as the sprinkling, watering or irrigation of shrubbery, trees, lawns, grass, ground covers, plants, vines, gardens, vegetables, flowers, or any vegetation.
2. Properties with odd numbered street addresses may water only on odd calendar dates (such as June 29th) except for the 31st of a month on which watering is prohibited.
3. Properties with even numbered street addresses may water only on even calendar dates (such as June 28th).
4. Watering is not permitted between the hours of 10 am and 5 pm.
5. Watering of any single area shall not exceed 30 minutes in a day.
6. These restrictions shall apply to all residential and commercial properties served by Manchester Township that are located in the Water Utility's Eastern Service Area except for public parks, public recreation areas and nurseries. Hanging plants are exempt. Any newly seeded or sodded lawn areas for up to thirty days after initial seeding or sodding are also exempt provided there is a small sign visible from the street in the front yard indicating "new seed" or "new sod" and the date of installation.
7. These restrictions shall not apply to residents and commercial properties which are served by other water utility companies or which obtain their potable water from their own private well.
8. These restrictions shall not apply to customers that obtain water for lawn and landscape watering from their own private well provided they place a small sign visible from the street in their front yard indicating "Private Well".
9. Violators of these restrictions are subject to fines.

In addition, please adhere to the following additional water conservation practices:

- Use self-closing nozzles on all hoses
- Use a broom to sweep your sidewalk or patio rather than a hose
- Run washing machines and dishwashers only when full
- Turn off faucets when not in use, such as while brushing your teeth or washing dishes
- Use soaker hoses or drip irrigation to water trees, gardens and flower beds

Thank you for your anticipated compliance with these water conservation measures.

From the Desk of Mayor Amato: - Superstorm Sandy 2012 vs. Berkeley Township 2016. It's not over! In an interview with Berkeley Twp. Mayor Carmen Amato, last week, he expressed regret that "the fact remains that so many have lost so much."

"When our 2016 budget was introduced," Amato said, Berkeley ratables were up slightly last year, 2015, by 17.5 million, for a total of 5,119,435,600. But the numbers are still less than the total ratable numbers announced in 2010, before the storm that devastated little waterfront towns, such as Glen Cove, that, to this day, has not fully recovered from the raging waters of 2012.

"There are those who still wait returning to their houses," said Amato. And he is right. Many former Bayville residents of Glen Cove, the home front lagoon town that was built in the 1950's continue to live with friends, relatives, loved ones if they are lucky enough to have those to take them in.

Each year, beginning in 1953, the then developers of Glen Cove, had another, than another, lagoon dredged out of the marshland, to create the semi-large summer place for so many families. And for so many years, those families were able to enjoy the little bungalows, built on a concrete slab. Then suddenly visitors would begin seeing lights on in the winter as those original buyers became seniors and retired to their little homes.

Who would have though that from its' inception to following the Storm, those little bungalows would be mandated to be raised 6 ft., at a cost of 100k. Many never lived to see the day. Those left are struggling to get back. They need help, they say.

And while they wait, their once beautiful little waterfront bungalows either sit, empty, waiting to be raised the mandated 6 feet, or their property lots are just empty, as they wait for Fema, and help from the government, to rebuild. If not raised, the Township has ordered that they will be demolished.

The 2016 introduced budget totals 45,983,833, up 747,989, or 1.66 percent from last year, said the mayor. The numbers translate into a 39.27 increase in municipal taxes for a home assessed at 199,200

The average announced municipal tax bill will be 1,230,01 up from 1,190.66 according to the introduced budget.

"Berkeley continues to pay back a 1.2 million emergency appropriation, over a 5 year span, to help cleanup and infrastructure repairs since Sandy. There is a bright spot, though, since the Oct. 29, 2012 devastation.

The mayor and council members are hopeful that Senate bill S-1978 will be approved. The bill, introduced by Senator Chris Connors, would give municipalities a ten year span in which to pay back the emergency notes, rather than 5 yrs, Amato said.

"The Senate bill would help not only Berkeley, but all those Sandy affected communities in a positive way."

The municipal tax rate will rise from .60 for each 100. of assessed valuation to 61.75 under our proposed budget, he said. Berkeley loses 34,529,900 in assessed value and subsidizes exemptions in the amount of 695,000 per year.

"This is why we are hopeful for the passage of Senate bill S-25, which calls for the state to reimburse municipalities."

Berkeley loses 34,529,900 in assessed valuation, subsidizing exemptions in the amount of 695,000 per year, said the mayor. Amato said.

"We would like to get back on track and see that help goes to those helpless people," Amato said.

A public hearing on the introduced budget will be held at 10 am, July 11th, at the Berkeley Township Municipal Building. 627 Pinewald-Keswick Road. All are invited to attend.

Berkeley Mayor Encouraged by "Fairness Formula"

School Funding and Property Tax Equity Plan

BERKELEY - Mayor Carmen F. Amato, Jr., Today, was encouraged by Governor Christie's "Fairness Formula" which would provide equal School funding for all, with each public school district receiving $6,599 per enrolled student. A figure that was arrived at by taking the $9.1 billion spent by the state today and dividing it among every K-12 student in New Jersey.

<http://nj.gov/governor/news/news/552016/approved/20160621b.html>

"We have been working closely with our 9th District Legislators, especially Senator Christopher Connors, advocating for an increase in School Funding. We need a Formula that is more favorably to Berkeley. The current school funding formula severely short-changes rural and suburban school districts like ours. I am encouraged by the Governor's announcement today, that recognizes the shortcomings of the current formula and the need to provide a more fairer funding formula that treats all districts the same." Mayor Amato said.

"Under the basics of this plan, both districts combined would see an increase of twenty million dollars in aid. Twenty million in additional property tax relief would be welcomed." Mayor Amato concluded.

IRS SCAMS

Chief Karin DiMichele and I would like to remind residents that this year's IRS phone scam is in full swing.

Residents are receiving calls from individuals claiming to be or work for the IRS who are attempting to scam people out of their personal information or money. They do this by attempting to frighten people over the phone with threats of law suits or criminal arrests/warrants. The IRS generally contacts people via mail, not by phone, and will not ask for payment using a pre-paid debit card, a money order or wire transfer. The IRS also, will not ask for a credit card number over the phone.

Residents are urged not to send money or give out personal information to ANYONE who may call you. If you are a victim of this scam or if your information has been compromised, please call the Detective Bureau at: (732) 341-1132 Extension: 117

You may also contact the Internal Revenue Service directly for questions or to report scams should refer them to at 800-829-1040. Residents can also fill out the "IRS Impersonation Scam" form on the TIGTA website, www.tigta.gov or call the TIGTA at 800-366-4484. You can also file a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission at www.FTC.gov and add "IRS Telephone Scam" to the comments in your complaint. You can also contact the Local IRS offices at 732-660-0063 (Freehold Office) or at 609-989-0533 (Trenton Office). Again, it is best to report scams to the IRS directly as they have their own law enforcement component to investigate these scam calls which originate mostly out of the country. The next scheduled inspection is this Wednesday, at the Bayville Volunteer Fire Co., located on Route 9 in Bayville. These inspections are free of charge. Ask your self the following questions: Is my child's safety seat properly installed in my vehicle? Is the safety seat I am using the right seat for my child? Is my child securely seated in his/her safety seat? Is my child ready for a booster seat? Is my child ready to safely travel in a vehicle without a booster seat? Can my child be placed in the forward facing position before he/she is two years old? Is there a "BEST" car seat for my child? If your not sure of any of these questions, stop down and one of our Certified CPS Technicians will be there to assist.

Learn How an American Pilot Helped Israel Start its Air Force at Film Screening in Manahawkin

See 'A Wing and a Prayer' on July 12 at Stockton's Instructional Site

Galloway, N.J. - The little-known story of how American pilot Al Schwimmer led a secret, illegal operation to give the newborn Jewish state a chance to survive is told in "A Wing and a Prayer," a film to be screened at Stockton University's Manahawkin Instructional Site on Tuesday, July 12.

The 2015 PBS documentary by Boaz Dvir shows how Schwimmer helped establish the Israel Air Force by covertly bringing aircrafts and guns to the nascent nation. Schwimmer worked for TWA and assisted the Air Transport Command in World War II. He used his many military and airplane industry contacts to help him transport the planes. He also created false companies to get around the United States' prohibition against sending military aid to Israel to avoid antagonizing Arab countries during the Cold War.

Schwimmer, who later founded Israel Aircraft Industries, died in 2011. He was pardoned by outgoing President Bill Clinton in 2001 in relation to his 1950 conviction for violating the Neutrality Act during Israel's 1948 War of Independence. He had not asked for the pardon, because he believed his actions were moral.

The public is invited to this free screening and to discuss the documentary, which features firsthand accounts of daring escapes and heart-pounding action. The event will be held at 11 a.m. on the 12th at the Manahawkin Instructional Site, 712 E. Bay Ave. Please call 609-626-3883 to RSVP.

Schwimmer and his men helped reshape history. Yet history books have ignored them. "A Wing and a Prayer" fills in that missing chapter.

Stockton Professor to Serve as Shore-Based Scientist During NOAA's Marianas Trench Deep Sea Expedition

NOAA to Livestream Footage from Remotely Operated Vehicle with Scientific Commentary by Tara Luke and Others June 17—July 10

Galloway, NJ – From behind her computer screen, Tara Luke, associate professor of Biology, will dive deep into the dark, frigid waters of the western Pacific Ocean to help identify marine life, possibly some new species. Luke is a shore-based scientist for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) exploration of the deepest place on the planet, the Marianas Trench, from the research vessel Okeanos Explorer.

Luke is part of a team of scientists contributing live commentary on the expedition while viewing footage from NOAA's remotely operated vehicle known as the Deep Discoverer daily for 8-10 hours from Friday, June 17 to Sunday, July 10, beginning at 5 p.m. ET. An online livestream will be available worldwide at <http://oceanexplorer.noaa.gov> for anyone to explore the deep sea along with the scientists.

June 17 marks the start of the expedition's third phase. During phase two, scientists used sonar to map areas of the trench to identify geographic features of interest such as basins, craters and seamounts (underwater mountains) that may attract colonies of sea life. Luke was an on-shore scientist during phase one and said that "the most exciting part was discovering a hydrothermal vent that had never been seen before."

Chemosynthetic organisms that use chemicals instead of sunlight to create their food inhabit regions with hydrothermal vents.

Previously, Luke participated as a shore-based scientist for a NOAA expedition off the Atlantic Ocean in 2014 that looked at submarine canyons along the New England seamount chain. As a post-doctoral researcher, she dove 2,512 meters below the ocean in Alvin, the U.S. Navy's manned deep-ocean research submersible that has been operated by Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution for more than half a century.

"I loved being able to go out to sea to see these places," she said, and with NOAA's marine technology she is able to continue exploring these places from Stockton University.

Locally, Luke studies artificial reefs that attract colonies of coral, mussels and fish such as tautog and sea bass. She looks at the genetic diversity of corals and microorganisms to predict their ability to withstand change. "Knowing what's out there and being able to identify species helps us document biodiversity," she explained.

AAHMSNJ in Atlantic City

AAHMSNJ presents an exhibit that pays tribute to the extraordinary life and impact of Muhammed Ali (aka Cassius Clay). This exhibit features posters, magazine covers, one-of-a-kind art and collectible dolls.

Ali was much more than a boxer. He took a stand on issues that changed life for African Americans and how sports figures and regular people-alike they were seen by the White world. His courage and tenacity made him a popular boxer, but he was an even more courageous fighter for civil rights, religious freedom and peace. He was once quoted as saying, "Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth."

According to Founder and President Ralph Hunter, Sr., this exhibit follows a very popular display devoted to the life and times of music legend Prince. "We're extremely proud of our vast collection of art and memorabilia focusing on the African American experience — much of which has been donated. This is what allows us to quickly curate exhibits honoring local and national figures who have had a lasting impact on Black life in America."

"Ali: Sting Like A Bee" will be on display from now through July 31st at the our Atlantic City location in the Noyes Arts Garage.

Stockton's Daniel Fidalgo Tomé Named Chair-Elect of American Democracy Project Steering Committee

Galloway, NJ – Daniel Fidalgo Tomé, of Manahawkin, N.J., has been named chair-elect of the 2016-2017 national steering committee of the American Democracy Project (ADP), which focuses on higher education's role in preparing civically engaged citizens with 250 participating colleges and universities from 48 states and Puerto Rico.

"Being selected to be a part of the leadership team for the national American Democracy Project steering committee is a great privilege; and it is an honor that colleagues from around the country have recognized me in this way," Tomé said.

The ADP is a multi-campus initiative of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU). "We're delighted for Daniel to serve in this capacity," said Jen Domagal-Goldman, ADP national manager. "His ideas, energy and commitment to fostering civic learning and democratic engagement throughout public higher education are to be commended and will be invaluable in our strategic planning and execution of future ADP programming."

He joins past chair Leah Murray (Weber State University, Utah) and current chair Craig Berger (University of Maryland Baltimore County) as the 2016-2017 national ADP steering committee leadership team.

Tomé, who serves as Stockton University's director of Service-Learning, has been involved with ADP for five years, serving on the organization's steering committee for the past two. He will officially become chair in 2017-2018 at the end of the Civic Learning and Democratic Engagement (CLDE) Leadership National Meeting in Baltimore, Md., and will serve as past chair for 2018-2019.

The steering committee works on the strategic plan for the organization, an initiative of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), planning the annual awards, the CLDE national meeting and the ADP national organizing meeting.

"The mission of Stockton University and the goals of the American Democracy Project are closely aligned in that both are committed to the education and preparation of civically engaged citizens," he said. "Critical thinking, social responsibility and problem solving are at the forefront of a Stockton education, and the ADP initiatives provide tools to community partners, faculty, staff and students to empower us to be creative and innovative educators. ISLAND BEACH STATE PARK HAS UNEXPECTED VISITORS.

A pair of piping plovers is now nesting on the beach at Island Beach State Park, the first ocean side nest in more than 25 years and the first in the park in more than a decade. This is great news for recovery of this federally threatened and state endangered bird. NJDEP Division of Fish and Wildlife biologists hope this is an indication of a rebounding population after sharp declines witnessed between 2003 and 2014.

For more information on the nest, including its impact on park visitors, and links to more information, visit <http://www.njfishandwildlife.com/news/2016/ploversreturn.htm> on the Division's website.

Stockton Offers CSI Summer Camp to High School Students

High School Students Solve Murder Mysteries at Three Summer Camps

Galloway, NJ – Stockton University's School of Social & Behavioral Sciences invites you to be part of Stockton CSI, a residential summer camp for high school students and those entering high school in the fall who want hands-on experience with a criminal investigation and trial.

Participants can choose from three camp sessions: Camp 1 runs from July 10-14; Camp 2 runs July 24-28; and Camp 3 runs July 31-Aug. 4.

Are you a high school student who enjoys television programs like CSI, Criminal Minds, NCIS, or Law and Order? Do you want to help solve a murder? Do you want to know what really happens behind the scenes of a murder investigation and a high-stakes murder trial? Do you want to know what life is like behind bars? Do you want to meet the people who work in criminal justice, law enforcement, and forensic psychology?

Campers will work as part of an elite team of investigators and professionals to help solve a murder. They will be involved with every phase of the legal process, from the crime scene investigation to the criminal murder trial. Every camp session features a different murder case!

Campers will gain experience with evidence gathering and testing techniques, such as DNA analysis, forensic odontology (bite marks), fingerprints, chemical analysis, and blood spatter analysis.

Campers will also learn how to question suspects and witnesses. Campers will use the same techniques as investigators to learn the facts in a case, assess when people are lying and figure out when suspects' memories may be distorted. Finally, campers will learn how to prepare a case for trial. They will learn jury selection techniques to help pick jurors to hear their case; strategies for presenting their cases and making arguments in a courtroom; and what life is like in jail for those awaiting trial and life in prison for those who are convicted.

"We talk to students about the reality of criminal justice careers. On television, one actor is often doing the job of five or six different criminal justice professionals. We explain to the students that they would not be doing all of those jobs and encourage them to pick one and to major in in a degree program that will prepare them for it," said Christine Tartaro, professor of Criminal Justice and camp co-director. "The campers watch the TV shows, so we tell them what's inaccurate and point out the myths and misconceptions."

"The goal of the camp is to bring learning about forensic investigations to life by putting our campers in charge of solving a murder mystery. We teach them the skills they need to conduct an investigation, but they steer the entire investigative process," said Joshua Duntley, associate professor of Criminal Justice and camp co-director.

The all-inclusive price of $859 for the camp includes all meals, a private dorm room, classes taught by experts, hands-on investigative and trial experience and three field trips. Register online at Stocktoncsi.com.

PRESS RELEASE

Waretown branch Library Month of August New York City Unfiltered – Sheldon Nadelman

Although Sheldon Nadelman's subjects were often overlooked, as well as, stepped over, his photographs often got much attention. An acclaimed book, Terminal Bar – A Photographic Record of New York's Most Notorious Watering Hole and a Sundance award winning short film documentary award, The Terminal Bar, have both resulted from his works. Even Martin Scorsese used the Terminal Bar in his film, Taxi Driver.

From Nadelman's vantage point as a bartender at the Terminal Bar at the corner of Eighth Avenue and West 41st. Street, he shot 2600 photographs with his $85 Pentax. His works have been the subject of a New York Times article, whose headquarters, ironically, now stands on the former site of the bar. Taken from 1962 until 1981, his photographs have long been recognized as historically significant.

Along with the "sooty, sticky-floored life" images taken off the streets in front of the Terminal Bar, Nadelman is also displaying sensitive images of the World Trade Center, pre-9/11.

A reception will be held at the Waretown Branch Library on Monday, August 8 at 7:30 pm and it is open to the public. These programs are free and open to the public.
